GLASGOW BOOKSHOP COLLECTIVE

1.

Glasgow Bookshop Collective

At de Courcy's Arcade, Cresswell Lane G12.

Formed in the summer of 1980, the Glasgow Bookshop Collective provides an outlet for publications not otherwise readily available to the public. Being charitable, let's put this down to their small circulation and perhaps controversial content, which makes them both unprofitable and unpopular for large booksellers.

We stock books, magazines, etc., which we hope will interest and excite you, and which will provoke thought and discussion. Plus others which you will simply enjoy reading!

This is not a profit-making exercise per se; although we recognise the need for adequate funding/turnover to ensure survival and expansion. To this end, we have formed a collective in which the decisions are taken by those involved in the active running of the shop.

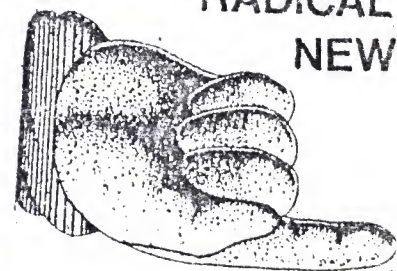

Help?!

If you are interested in helping in any way, please contact George Paxton at the following telephone number:

339 6917

or drop by at the shop.
